COMPETITION BY FOREIGN RAILWAYS.

The New York Evening Post is in a dilemma on the question of the unfair competition of the Canadian Pacific Railroad with the transcontinental American roads. Commercially, its sympathies are with its clientage in New York and the Central and Western States; politically, it shies at the faintest shadow of anything like protection. Yet it must accept either one or the other of the positions indicated. There is, as we view it, no middle ground to takewe must protect the American transconti-

The Board of Trade committee are opposed to any and every kind of testriction on the Cona-dian roads doing business in our territory, and they say that any political party which becomes responsible for imposing such restrictions will be smashed. They are in favor of free competition of railroads, and call for the enforcement of the interstate commerce law and the abolishment of all associations which seek to evade its provisions. This is rather sweeping, but per haps something as emphatic was needed to p naps something as emphatic was needed to pre-vent the Senale committee from going too far the other way in its treatment of the question at issue. Justice requires that the Canadian roads shall not have an advantage over our own in carrying American freight. If the long-and-short-haul clause, applicable to our roads, but not to the Canadian, operates as an advantage to the latter, that is an evil to be rectified.

is injury to our home roads, it is an evil to be rectified. But the Post thinks no new legislation is necessary; that the power of the Interstate Commission to discriminate or afford relief where the "circumstances and conditions are not substantially similar," gives scope for relief. It quotes the Railway Review as saying that the American railway lines have the right to meet the Lake and Canadian rates without reducing their intermediate rates. But manifestly the question of remedy is a secondary matter. The Post, in further consideration of the subject, shows its disfavor to applying the principles of "protection" to the American roads, but adds The statement so often made that the Cana dian Pacific Road is competing unfairly with us by reason of a Government subsidy, ignores our subsidies to the Pacific railroads, which counting bonds and lands together, are proba-bly greater than those of the Canadian line, although ours were divided among several companies, instead of being concentrated on one As a matter of fact, the subsidies granted to the Canadian Pacific Railroad exceed in the aggregate the sum of all the subsidies granted to American roads. Disposing of that premise of the Post's argument, there remains the admission that the American subsidies were divided among many roads The situation would, possibly, be somewhat different had all the American subsidies been given to one transcontinental company. But the very fact that they were divided among many, forces to the front this vital truth, that there was thereby created internal competition between American roads which has reduced the earning capacity of the original linethat first laid out aided and constructed as a military and post road. It is germane to the debate to here interpolate the historic fact, that when this origiwas not contemplated that the Government would put into the field against it competitors to divide its earnings and for the East. cripple its capacity, to earn sufficient in excess of operating expenses and other necessary expenditures to enable it to meet its obligations to the Government Yet that is precisely what the Govern-

But passing that consideration, the Post must take into account these other facts if it desires to reach a just conclusion concerning the lines of transportation of its own country: First, that the American subsidies are demanded in repayment by the Government, and that a given percentage of earnings long has been, and now is being paid into the national Teeasury in discharge of such obligations. Secondly, that the American road, by reason of a turned a verdict of accidental death. able to avail fully of the subsidy grants made, but was compelled to sacrifice them largely in order to convert the aid into largely in order to convert the aid state of war during construction, was not conditions, involving unusual and heavy day by President Devine to settle some discost for material and labor, to which none putes regarding the schedule of the league. of its rivals have been subjected. port merchandise from one portion of the Inited States to another in bond is one of more importance than it appears to casual observers. It is not a question whether our railroads should be permitted to charge higher freight rates than does the Canadian Pacific, but it is one which in the end will be understood, if a considerable portion of the business which would otherwise pass over our own roads, is diverted from them to a foreign company, our roads part in the state of the properties of the propertie end charge higher rates for the business which remains, or reduce their service correspondingly. It is precisely as if our Australian line of steamers, having just enough business to pay for keeping up an effective service, should lose one-fourth of that business by the interference of English steamera. It is plain that under such circum stances our Australian service would have during the season at 1008 Fourth st. jyl3-tf to charge higher prices, or the line would be broken up. If England has an advantage in the ocean carrying trade by bestow ing large subsidies upon lines of steamers, it is quite as certain, that by subsidizing both steamers and railroads which form a continuous line from Australia and China to the Eastern cities and to Europe, an advantage would be obtained which would take most of the business from our lines, stantial way. MAY CROSS THE COUNTRY.

So Says the Attorney-Seneral Regarding Those Chinese Trom Cuba. WASHINGTON, July 24th .- The Attorney-General has given the Secretary of the Treasury an opinion to the effect that there is no legal objection to the transit through the United States of the Chinamen who recently arrived at New Orleans from Cuba, their hair was black and crispy, and their women were fortune-tellers. The French en route to China via San Francisco. The Chinese Minister has asked that these men be permitted to cross the United States on bers of them came into that country from their way home, and it is probable, in view of the Attorney General's opinion, that his Bohemia. request will be granted. This opinion is in accord with a decision given by Solicitor Hepburn, on the same question some weeks age, which was, however, not accepted by the Treasury Department.

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL TALKS. Washington, July 24th.-The Attorney-General was seen by a California Associated Press reporter and asked about his decision. He acknowledged having decided that the Chinese at New Orleans could be permitted to pass through the country to San Francisco as tourists. being asked on what grounds he based his decision he replied: "On the same grounds as taken by Attorney-General Brewster some years ago, that Chinese passing through the country cannot be construed as coming within the meaning of the terms of laborers or immigrants under the intent of the law. As to the Scott Exclusion Act, that does not cover this case at all. That only deals with Chinese laborers desiring to make a visit to China, or who are there and desire to return, or of laborers who are coming to this country for the first time. But it does not say a word about Chinese passing through the United States from port to port, either coming or going to

The Spoils Do Not Belong to the Victors, Says He. WASHINGTON, July 24th .- Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt said to day that charges have been brought against both the Pension Office and the Sixth Auditor's Office that men had been discharged be cause they were Democrats. He was not prepared to say that this was a violation of the law, but individually he was firmly of the opinion that it was in violation of the spirit of the law. He thought that no one, unless he happened to be an active parti-san, should be dismissed from public service. He said the Commission was going to look the matter up, not only as relating to the present, but to the past.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKET.

San Francisco. July 24th.

FLOUR—Prices firm, with active trade. We quote as follows: Net cash price for Family Extras, $4@4 25 $\frac{1}{2}$ bbl: Bakers' Extras, $4 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ Cohn as a carpet store, and, in order to introduce their goods, this company put for sixty days souvenirs in every can of tea and coffee sold, such as solid gold, silver and nickel watches; also, genuine diamonds in solid gold setting; also, money and many other articles of less value. Every can contains a souvenir. The coffee, can and contents weigh about three pounds; lea, can and contents weigh about one and one tea. BARLEY—Although trade is not extensive or tea, can and contents about one and one BARLEY—Although trade is not extensive or rapid, there is fair tone to the market. Holders of feed will make no concessions to secure custom, and buyers have to pay asking prices for good feed or purchase an inferior article. There is considerable weevily barley on the market, which in many cases is taken in preference because of being cheaper. Brewing descriptions are in fairly good request and a moderate volume of strade is footed up daily. Chevalier is being looked after and more or less export bustiness jwould be likely under way if samples came up to the required weight for the English market. We quote as follows: Old No. 1 Feed, 67½@70c; common grades. 65c; Brewing, 85@95c; for fair and 92½c to 97½c for good to choice; new feed 76½. 70½c & cti.

OATS—The period of depression has passed and better times seem to be in prospect. No very maked advance in values is expected, but it is believed that current figures will be well maintained, while business will increase as the season moves along. We goods a Right to give away glassware, chromos, etc. Get up a club. Those who get up a club order most always get a handosome present. Orders by mail promptly forwarded to all parts of the United States on receipt of cash or post-office order. Terms: Single cans, $1; six for $5; thirteen for $10, and twenty-seven for $20. The Overland Tea Company have durites are in Marysville, has been fortunate in opening up new markets in Oregon and Washington Territory, not only for fruit, but for vegetables, which latter, by reason of their earliness, find a ready sale, though shipped by express at a high cost of transportation.

Shipping peaches now command from 1½ to 1½ cents a pound, and the demand is more than equal to the supply. Carload lots are dispatched to Portland and Denver.

Several million pounds of fruit have been shipped from Marysville already this season and a great horticultural interest is fast developing in this neighborhood. The demand for shipping vegetables, such as corn, beets and melons, is so good that the local retail market shows the effect in poorer. ennett, 9201 J street, silver pickle stand; ohn Williams, silver fruit stand: Harry McCouly, N street, cluster diamond lace pin; Jacob Schwerdtle, Twelfth street, dia-mond ring; H.
